LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION

Date : 05 May 2025

It is with great pleasure that I write this letter of recommendation for Vihaan Sharma who has successfully completed the internship as a R&D at Athenura.

Throughout his tenure, he consistently demonstrated a high level of professionalism, dedication, and commitment to assigned responsibilities. He showcased a strong understanding of core concepts related to his domain and applied his skills effectively to deliver quality outcomes aligned with organizational goals.

He was actively involved in coordination, documentation, reporting, communication handling, and operational support activities. His ability to manage responsibilities efficiently, maintain accuracy in records, and ensure timely task completion contributed positively to team productivity..

Sameer possesses strong interpersonal and communication skills, which enabled him to collaborate effectively with team members and stakeholders. He displayed initiative, leadership potential, and a solution-oriented mindset while handling day-to-day responsibilities..

His positive attitude, time management skills, and eagerness to learn made him a dependable and valued member of the organization. He carried out his tasks with sincerity and maintained a professional approach throughout his internship.

Sincerely,
Sameer Singh
